

MAX VOGEL

– COUNTRY ARTIST –

Max Vogel, a talented country artist hailing from Lodi, California, has had music in his veins since he first picked up a guitar in eighth grade. With guitar and vocals as his main instruments, Max's musical journey spans over two decades, during which he has developed his skills and crafted heartfelt songs. While country, folk, and rock are his favorite genres, Max finds inspiration in various musical styles, influenced by artists like James Taylor, The Traveling Wilburys, Tom Petty, Chris Stapleton, Garth Brooks, Gregory Allen Isakov, and Alexi Murdoch.

In addition to his musical pursuits, Max Vogel serves as a dedicated EMT, bringing care and comfort to his community. He values hard work and believes in the power of connecting with others, both through his profession and his music. Max cherishes the joy and sense of belonging that music brings, and he strives to create music that resonates with the lives of his listeners, just as his musical idols have shaped his own journey.
