“I’m Coming Back”

1. I’m Coming Back (3:30) – I went to church regularly as a kid. Faith was just part of life growing up. But once I was out on my own, things changed. I didn’t have time for church because I had two jobs: one to pay rent, and the other to spend what was left making bad choices.

2. Heaven Begins Right Now (3:08) – What does it feel like to go to Heaven? I’m sure it’s better than anyone could ever imagine. I wrote this song during the time I was going through my own spiritual rebirth, and the fantastic feeling I had when I let Jesus into my heart.

3. I Just Know (2:44) – I felt the Holy Spirit wash over me the first time I heard this Joyce Rouse melody. It’s hard to not choke up when I play it on stage. My hope is that it will touch others to trust the goodness of God in their heart. I think it could be a great wedding song.

4. BOOM (3:13) – When God created Heaven and earth, He expected mankind to stay within His guardrails. When we don’t, He usually makes something BIG happen. BOOM is about several of those biblical-sized events. Praise Jesus that God will continue to have patience with us.

5. Head Down in the Rain (3:54) – This is a pure country song – with a little praise and worship thrown in. I wanted the song to reflect some of my own story about a guy who had to learn some really hard lessons to finally realize he needs Jesus in his life.

6. When The Bible Hits The Bone (3:46) – This title came to me after I’d taken exactly one year to the day to read the King James Bible. I wanted to write about how the experience affected me. And how the feelings I had were much more than just skin deep. I hope this song leads others to open that bible that’s been on a shelf collecting dust for years and experience the power and glory of God’s Love that I feel.

7. Learning How To Love You (4:04) – I tried to write this love song a bunch of different ways. But nothing worked until I looked at the idea through the lens of my own spiritual journey. I let Jesus into my life and I’m still discovering all the ways I love Him.

8. I Am So Blessed (3:06) – I wasn’t sure which direction to take with this song. I had a blockage of some kind. So, I prayed. And prayed some more until I had the crazy thought that the devil didn’t want me to write the song. The enemy doesn’t want people saying, “I Am So Blessed”. It’s bad for his business. Sing it loud, “I AM SO BLESSED!”

9. Touching Jesus (2:42) – I always get a chill when I’m blessed with a great song title, piece of a lyric or hooky melody. It’s a feeling I wouldn’t trade for anything in the world. This song is my way of giving thanks to The One who is responsible for those chills.

10. He Made Water (3:27) – The idea came to me while working with a buddy on a project at my house. He agreed it was a cool title. But I had no idea what the song was about. A few days later I realized. Duh. It’s about water. And God. And Grandma’s iced tea.

11. Holy (4:09) – I wanted to write a simple song to honor the simple truth that Jesus loves us, no matter what. To feel His love, all we have to do is open our heart and surrender to Him. I used to think I was being strong by resisting. Uh uh. Be brave. Give in and be happy.

12. Faith in the Feeling (3:38) – This was originally a secular love song. One day I realized it should be about my personal relationship with my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. I hope it will encourage others to seek, to find and to feel the peace that true Faith in Jesus can bring.
