KILL A DREAM

Written by Olivia Steele
& Kirsti Manna

"Kill a Dream" by Olivia Steele is a heartfelt soft rock ballad that dives deep into the emotional roller coaster of struggling with unfulfilled dreams. Steele's smooth, soulful vocals bring a genuine warmth and vulnerability to the track, drawing listeners into her story at the start.

The composition of this emotional journey skillfully balances the ebb and flow of tempo and intensity, mirroring the emotional highs and lows of the song's theme. The anthemic guitar riffs and driving drums build a textured soundscape that perfectly complements the song's lyrical ups and downs. As the tempo shifts, you can feel the push and pull of Steele's inner struggle, making the song incredibly relatable and moving.

With raw honesty, the lyrics address loneliness, the battle to stay true to oneself, and that no matter how much we try to drown them out, dreams are what make life worth living.

This song is for anyone who's ever felt the sting of giving up on a dream or the relentless pull of aspirations that won't be ignored. With its blend of emotive lyrics, compelling vocals, and dynamic instrumentation, "Kill a Dream" is a moving anthem that stays with the listener long after the song fades.
